

Local Community News

Protecting Communities, Targeting Criminals, Making a Difference

Wolds Ward Healing Update August 2016

Crime

There have been 29 reported crimes across the Wolds Ward for July, eight of which have occurred in Healing.

About 8am on 17th July, a male walking home from a nights fishing at Pegasus Way with his dog was stopped by a van. The occupants then scuffled with the male and made off with his dog in the van. The dog was later returned to the owner.

About 1pm on 14th June a window at a property at Ashleigh Court was smashed.

Other reports relate to four assaults. A male was arrested after he assaulted a female on The Avenue, when he tried to leave the scene of a road traffic collision. Another was dealt with by community resolution at the request of the female victim. The other two incidents were between young people and are still under investigation.

There were two incidents reported at Healing Manor in relation to an ex-employee. These matters have been dealt with.

One report of ASB where a male was causing annoyance in a car on Hornbeam Drive continually sounding his car horn.

How you can help

Your local Neighbourhood Policing Team appreciates the importance of being in the right place, at the right time, for the right reasons to reassure the public, improve public confidence and reduce crime and anti-social behaviour in the area in which we all live and work.

We encourage all residents to call and report any issues where they live so that we can deal with any issues and also step up our patrols in the area. The number to call for non-emergency issues is 101

NOT PROTECTIVELY MARKED

The named officers for Healing are:

PC 373 Matt Stephenson matthew.stephenson@humberside.pnn.police.uk

PCSO 7871 Louise Davis louise.davis.7871@humberside.pnn.police.uk

Follow us on Twitter @ImminghamWolds