

Local Community News

Protecting Communities, Targeting Criminals, Making a Difference

Wolds Ward Healing Update February 2018

Crime

There have been 32 reported crimes across the Wolds Ward for January, of which 4 have occurred in Healing.

As reported last month, a Ford Transit van was stolen overnight 4th & 5th from the BT compound on Great Coats Road after the locked gates were forced.

Overnight 26th & 27th January a garden shed at a property on Fords Avenue was entered and property stolen.

Between 27th & 31st January insecure outbuildings at a property on Station Road, were entered, along with a secured garden shed. Nothing was stolen.

The other crime relates to a report of an assault at the Healing Working Man's Club.

Just one report of ASB, regarding a neighbour dispute.

Your local Neighbourhood Policing Team appreciates the importance of being in the right place, at the right time, for the right reasons to reassure the public, improve public confidence and reduce crime and anti-social behaviour in the area in which we all live and work.

We encourage all residents to call and report any issues where they live so that we can deal with any issues and also step up our patrols in the area. The number to call for non-emergency issues is 101

The named officers for Healing are:

PC 373 Matt Stephenson matthew.stephenson@humberside.pnn.police.uk

PCSO 7874 Andy Wildman andrew.wildman@humberside.pnn.police.uk

Follow us on Twitter @ImminghamWolds